

BIG DAY'S CALENDAR

Question of Fees Ruled on by De Bolt.

Judge De Bolt had a docket of seventeen cases at Circuit Court chambers yesterday.

George P. Castle was appointed administrator of the estate of the late Dr. George Pierce Andrews under a bond of $10,000. W. L. Howard, P. M. Pond and Harry Armitage were appointed appraisers of the estate. The administrator filed his bond with W. A. Bowen as surety.

Accounts of C. P. Pauka, guardian of Kaana, a person of unsound mind, were referred to P. D. Kellet, Jr., for examination. W. A. Whiting, attorney for the guardian, requested such reference, stating that it was also the desire of Mr. Dunne, administrator of the estate of Kaana, deceased.

In the partition suit of M. F. Scott vs. E. N. Philpo et al., the petition of W. A. Wall, commissioner, for leave to sell real estate came up. W. C. Achi appeared for the petitioner, Lyle A. Dickey for himself as owner of a share in the land company and C. W. A. Hford as amicus curiae. Mr. Achi answering questions said notice by publication had been given but he did not have the affidavit thereof with him. He had no objection to a continuance. Judge De Bolt continued the hearing until Thursday, when Mr. Achi is to show the court that it has jurisdiction. The Kona plantation and the Kapilani Estate are interested in the matter.

The will of William Phillips was admitted to probate and Cecil Brown appointed executor under a bond of $25,000. J. R. Galt, P. H. Burnette and P. D. Kellet, Jr., were appointed appraisers.

SETTLEMENT APPROVED.

In the matter of the estate of Israel Fisher, the account of David Dayton, guardian of the minors, was approved and he discharged. The joint petition of David Dayton and Hannah Fisher was also granted, with the effect of confirming the settlement of the estate between Hannah Fisher and Maggie Fisher, her daughter-in-law.

The accounts of W. L. Howard, administrator of the estate of August Kraft, deceased, were referred to J. A. Mathewman as master.

Accounts of Lau Ng, administrator of the estate of Lau Sun Mee, deceased, were approved and he was discharged. Kamakulani Woolsey vs. Ching Lum, on motion to set demurrer for hearing went over until Friday.

PARTITION DECREED.

Judge De Bolt signed the decree of partition in accordance with the report of Olaf Sorenson, commissioner, in the suit of Kvahl (vs.) vs. Niau Pauka et al. Prior to this the court ordered that plaintiff should pay one-half of the costs and all of the defendants the other half equally.

DECISION.

Judge De Bolt yesterday afternoon rendered a decision sustaining without prejudice, the several demurrers in the suit of Kula et al. vs. Moses Kelihihulu et al. bill to cancel a lease.

The Club Stables case remitted by the Supreme Court for further proceedings was continued, under an objection to Judge De Bolt as disqualified raised by Mr. Robertson for plaintiff, until Thursday.

Peacock vs. Vida was continued until today.

DECISION APPEALED.

Henry E. Highton, for plaintiffs, has filed an exception to Judge De Bolt's decision sustaining the demurrer in the case of A. J. da Estrella vs. Chas. M. Le Blond.

A. M. Shields vs. David Land and Henry Waterhouse Trust Co. et al., garnishees, is dismissed by plaintiff, the debt sued for having been paid.

TERM CASES.

Judge De Bolt, after hearing argument on jurisdiction, ruled that the case of the Oriental Life Insurance Co. vs. C. Winam et al. was a term and not a chambers matter, therefore declining to determine it in vacation. Following the previous ruling, the court declined to hear the motion to substitute plaintiff in the two cases of C. Ming Hym vs. Wong Kwai et al., being term matters.

FEES ARE ALLOWED.

Judge De Bolt overruled the points raised by P. D. Kellet, Jr., master on the James Gay estate accounts, that a trustee had no authority to charge an attorney's fee for filing the report and account of trustees.

The same ruling was made on the objection of M. T. Simonton, master on the account of Cecil Brown, guardian of Mary Alice Porter, a minor. In both cases the court allowed the fees as charged. In the Porter case the principal of the estate had been increased by $1500 the past year through transfers of balances from the income accounts.

Accounts were approved in both cases.

ACCESSION TO BAR.

David L. Withington took the oath as an attorney in all the courts of the Territory before Chief Justice Frear yesterday. His petition shows that he was born at Newbury, Mass., on February 2, 1854, that he graduated both in Harvard College and the Boston University of Law, that his study of law began in June, 1874, that he was admitted to practice in Massachusetts June 20, 1876, and since then in California and the Supreme Court of the United States, etc. Bishop H. B. Restarick furnishes a certificate of character with the petition, in which he says on the strength of an acquaintance of many years at San Diego, California:

"Mr. Withington was known to the bench and the bar of San Diego and elsewhere in the State not only as a lawyer of excellent ability and large experience, but as a man of exceptionally high character and unquestioned probity.

"The community knew him as one who was always interested in all that tended to benefit or uplift the city, county or State. Mr. Geo. W. Marston, easily San Diego's first citizen, wrote me recently: 'Withington's decision to go to Honolulu threw us into consternation. How shall we do without him in city and State affairs where he has been so masterful?'

William Mossman, Jr., has taken the oath on renewal of license to practice in the lower courts.

DEMURRERS.

Eben P. Low has entered a demurrer to the complaint of J. S. Low, some of the grounds being as follows: The complaint is not addressed to the chief judge of the court. It does not state the time when the alleged request by defendant to plaintiff to perform the services in question was made. The complaint does not lay any venue or allege any place where the alleged cause of action arose.

J. Alfred Magoon demurs to the complaint against himself and Thomas Fitch, "on the ground that no literal copy of the check or bill of exchange upon which the alleged cause of action is predicated is annexed to the said complaint."

Sorenson's Wharf Bids

In the Sorenson's wharf bids opened in the Public Works department yesterday, Cotton Bros. & Co. gave the lowest for construction, L. M. Whitehouse for piles and John Oudekirk for lumber being in repairs and for paving. The bids were as follows:

Construction—Henry De Fries, $15,800; Cotton Bros. & Co., $14,927; John Oudekirk, $15,733; L. M. Whitehouse, $15,555.

Piles—De Fries, $106; C. B. & Co., $110; Oudekirk, $115; Whitehouse, $100.

Lumber, per M ft.—De Fries, $50; C. B. & Co., $47.50; Oudekirk, $45; Whitehouse, $50.

Paving per sq. ft.—De Fries, 22 cents; C. B. & Co., 23 cents; Oudekirk, 20 cents; Whitehouse, 24 cents.

Popular Machines Arrive.

The Pioneer Motor Car Co., at the corner of Alakea and Merchant streets, are happy people today on account of the arrival yesterday by the steamer Alaskan of the first shipment of Oldsmobiles. The manufacturers of these celebrated machines are so busy with orders that the local firm have been waiting four months for this order to be shipped, although the factory is turning out thirty machines a day. The agents here are fortunate in securing a machine of such wonderful simplicity and reliability; also one that they can sell at such a reasonable price.

SHELTER ON HALEAKALA

Plans Are Made for a New Summit Cave.

MAUI, Aug. 29.—Several weeks ago Engineer Carl Waldeyer of Walluku, accompanied by W. O. Aiken of Paia, visited the summit of Haleakala. After some investigation Mr. Waldeyer concluded that the plan of making a cave-shelter at the top for tourists was a most feasible one. He suggested that the floor of the cave be dug down two feet and that a room ten feet by fourteen feet be tunneled out, making a hole in the roof to allow the smoke of fires to pass out. The roof of the proposed apartment would, he thought, be fairly water-proof. Probably this project will not be pushed through now until next summer.

A new landing has been recently established on Maui at Keawakaou on the Maalaea Bay side of Makena. The Kula Planters and Merchants' Association of which Ahmo is president is the promoter of the scheme. The association has recently signed a five-year contract with Wilder Steamship Co. and the Kinau has lately been landing and receiving freight at the beach at Keawakaou. The association, it is reported, will immediately construct a proper wharf, which does not need to extend far out owing to the proximity of deep water. The Keawakaou landing is three miles nearer than Makena for the Kula corn and potato ranchers.

HOME RULERS WANT CITIZENS' TICKET.

Republican precinct clubs will hold meetings today, all over the island, for the purpose of electing county delegates.

There are now two complete Republican county slates made up, which though in many respects similar in regard to candidates, still have enough difference to cause somewhat of a contest in the September convention, unless a compromise is made, which is probable.

Leading Home Rulers have approached Republicans for a citizen ticket, but the latter prefer to stick to party lines. Republicans say that Home Rulers feel their weakness in regard to proper men for candidates. At Walluku last night eighteen candidates were nominated to fill the seven places at the county convention.

WAILUKUS LOST.

On the afternoon of the 23d at Wells Park, Walluku, the Morning Stars beat the Wallukus at baseball—10 to 8. The latter were seven ahead until the fifth inning. From the fifth until the ninth the Stars had all the advantage. Johnny King pitched for the Wallukus for the first time. He may with practice develop a crack ball-thrower. The Wallukus have filed a protest with the secretary of the Athletic Association. The umpire failed to call a ball dead that had struck the batsman and rolled some distance away thus letting in some base runners. If the protest is decided in favor of the Stars, it means virtually awarding them the championship for 1903.

A MAUI DANCE.

Saturday evening, the 22nd, a dancing party was given in the Hamakua-poko school house. About sixty of the young people of the vicinity were present. W. Loogher of Puunene was floor manager and a piano and string band furnished enlivening music. Mesdames Taylor and Peck and Miss Eva Smith were the hostesses of the occasion.

A BAD ACCIDENT.

Engineer Lowell of the Paia plantation met with a serious accident on the 21th. While watching a Japanese breaking stone, near the Paia mill, a piece of rock flew upward, striking him just below the right eye, striking the ball and letting the fluid out. He was taken to Puunene hospital where Dr. Rogers summoned from Honolulu by a wireless telegraph message has been attending him since Wednesday. There is just the slightest chance of saving the eye-ball but not the sight.

STRAY NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Barnes of Honolulu have been the guests of Judge W. A. McKay of Walluku during the week. D. B. Murdoch of Paia took Thursday's steamer for a business trip to Honolulu.

Senator and Mrs. C. H. Dickey and Mrs. Grace Waterhouse arrived on Maui by the Nevada of the 22nd and will spend a month at Haiku.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cornwell of Waikapu returned from Honolulu by Wednesday's Maui.

By today's steamer Mrs. Chamberlain, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. O. Aiken of Makawao, for several months, returned to San Jose via Honolulu.

Miss Couledge of Paia departed today to accept a position of teacher in Kawaihae Seminary of Honolulu.

The Paia and Hamakua girls have formed a polo club.

C. J. Austin of the Territorial agricultural department is visiting at J. W. Fleming's of Grove Ranch.

Mr. Pope of the Honolulu Normal School made a trip to Haleakala during the week.

Dr. G. S. Aiken has been at Puunene during the week and Dr. P. Frear of Honolulu has been at Walluku.

On the afternoon of the 25th a tea was given in honor of Mesdames C. H. Dickey and Grace Waterhouse at the home of Mrs. W. S. Nicoll of Hamakua. Thirty ladies were present.

On the 23rd, on the Kuau (Paia) grounds, the Makawao beat the Paia at baseball, 25 to 9. A large crowd

LADY MASONS ENTERTAIN

The Eastern Stars Give a Grand Ball.

A very successful ball was given at the Young Hotel last evening under the auspices of the Leahi Chapter, No. 2, Order of the Eastern Star. The ball was commemorative of Robert Morris, L. L. D., the founder of the Order.

The dance held in the northern pavilion of the hotel was well attended and later in the evening the dancers were divided between the two pavilions, native quintettes furnishing the music. The splendid dancing floors of the new hotel were well patronized and the affair proved a complete success.

An elaborate souvenir program with the device of the Chapter emblazoned thereon together with an engraving of the roof garden, was provided. Between dances the guests frequented the cool garden and enjoyed the fresh breezes and moonlight view of the city. A champagne punch with ices and other refreshments were provided. The dancing pavilions were tastefully ornamented with palms.

The dance was under the charge of the following committees:

General Committee—Dr. Geo. W. Burgess, Senator C. L. Crabbe, Mrs. Emma Crabbe, P. W. M.

Reception Committee—Mrs. Sallie L. Williams, W. M., Mr. L. C. Ables, Mrs. Emma A. Ables, Mr. E. C. Brown, Mrs. Mary E. Brown, Miss Ella K. Dayton, Justice C. A. Galbraith, P. W. P., Mrs. Nova J. Galbraith, P. W. M., Mr. C. F. Herlick, Mrs. Alice G. Herlick, Mr. Walter L. Howard, Mrs. Margaret Howard, Mr. Clinton J. Hutchins, Miss Pearl Noble, Mr. J. Mort Oat, Mrs. Maggie F. Oat, Mrs. Jas. W. Pratt, Mrs. Ellen M. Pratt, Mr. Thos. E. Wall, Mr. H. E. Webster, Mrs. Adelaide M. Webster, Mr. Frederick Whitney, W. P. M., Mrs. Marian Whitney, Miss Annie M. Whitney, Mr. H. H. Williams.

Floor Committee—Mr. Frederick Whitney, W. P. M., Mr. L. C. Ables, Mr. E. C. Brown, Mr. H. W. Foster, Mr. C. J. Hutchins, Mr. J. W. Pratt, Mr. Chas. H. Ramsey, Mr. Thos. E. Wall, Mr. H. H. Williams.

CUP FOR PACIFIC WATERS.

ent proposed, would be about 26 feet water line, 40 feet over all, about 1000 feet of sail area and about 15,000 lbs. displacement. The courses proposed are: From Bell Buoy fifteen miles on the wind to Barber's Point and return. From Bell Buoy around Rabbit's Island and return to windward and back, touching the channel bars and testing the seaworthiness of the boats; and: A triangular course off Honolulu.

These plans may be largely modified and are merely in embryo. The advertising for Hawaii in general would be of wide distribution and the races would attract many visitors, correspondents and sportsmen from all over America and the Pacific Coast. Aside from the sporting journals and daily newspapers the magazines would undoubtedly give much space and illustration and an enormous amount of advertising drawing attention to the Territory at small cost would be secured at a small outlay. Nor would the literature be reserved to the American press or the English language.

was in attendance. On the 30th, the Makawao club will play the Hamakua and the Paia will play the "Violets" of Pauwela.

Monday night, the 24th, a burglar, with a black cloth as a mask over his face, entered a Hamakua school residence through an open window, but was frightened away before he obtained any booty.

On the evening of the 25th a dancing party was given by Miss Catherine Smith in the kindergarten school building at Hamakua. A stringed band played excellent music. Thirty-five young folk were present.

Saturday afternoon, the 22nd, at Paia, the "Yellows" again defeated the "Reds" at polo by several goals. The latter much miss D. C. Lindsay who is laid off by a broken wrist and W. O. Aiken who has not played on account of demands of business. Today the new polo ponies imported per steamer Nevada make their debut.

Weather: Pleasant with few showers and heavy trades.
